Tasks converter Tasks are the most basic information for any application, not only on Windows but for Mac OS and Linux. Even Android doesn't have a task manager, so you can see why we need a task manager on Windows. Starting with Windows Vista, Microsoft introduced the Windows Task Manager, the "System" task, and the "All Processes" task. Unfortunately, Windows 8 and Windows 10 are lacking an all-inclusive task manager, so we have to deal with these limitations. For this reason, we recommend the following alternative: Freeware &
